The Diabetes-Endocrinology Center of WNY provides one-on-one teaching sessions with Certified Diabetes Educators. Sessions could include nutritional counseling, skills teaching such as self-monitoring of blood glucose or insulin administration, instructions in pregnancy and diabetes, or general diabetes education for individuals with barriers to learning in a group education setting.

The patient will need to obtain a prescription with a Diagnosis Code from his / her physician.

To obtain more information or to schedule an appointment, call 887-4254 (nutritional counseling) or 887-4869 (skills teaching, general diabetes education).

Note:

For insulin instruction, the physician must clearly state: the type of insulin, number of units, pen or syringe, frequency of injections and time / times of day injections should be given.
