About the Program:

Attendees will learn about the interesting history, culture, and healthcare needs of the Somali Bantu people. The conference will provide a venue for professionals to network and share information. A continental breakfast will be served.

Speakers:

Our keynote speaker is Omar Eno, PhD. Dr. Eno is the co-author of The Somali Bantu: their history and culture and he is co-founder of the Bantu Rehabilitation Trust in Nairobi, Kenya.

Dr. Myron Glick will discuss The Jericho Road Family Practice's experience in providing medical care in a private practice setting to Somali Bantu refugees in Buffalo. His practice provides quality family medical care to people from over 60 nations.

A representative of WNYRAC – a consortium of agencies that provide services for refugees, will describe their experiences resettling the Somali Bantu refugees in the Buffalo area.
