

CASE: Center for Autism Support and Education presents ...

Newly Diagnosed with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

FREE information for families of individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD)

- Was your child recently diagnosed with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)?
- Are you feeling overwhelmed, wondering what to do next?
- Would you like helpful information and ideas from an expert?

Join us for this informative workshop.

Presenter Kathy Doody, Ph.D., parent of a child with autism, will offer you an understanding of ASD and discuss the next steps for your family. She will provide information about available services and supports from the school system and community. You will learn how to communicate and work together to help your child reach their full potential.
